Volume 5, Issue 9:

March 1, 2012

HeadingHome Scott-Carver will be hosting a fourth community meeting tonight, March 1st, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm at St. John's Lutheran Church located at 300 East Fourth Street, Chaska to discuss issues concerning those in our community who are without housing.

Guest speakers are Barb Wold; and Junita Cathey, Executive Director of Family Promise of Anoka. All members of the Chaska community and the local media are welcome and encouraged to attend the event.

Over the past ten months, the Heading Home Scott-Carver Workgroup has worked on a plan to address and end homelessness in both counties. This comprehensive plan has five broad goals, twenty-two strategies, and fifty-eight concrete action steps that will help move our communities and its resources, from managing homelessness in our community, to ending it. Communities in Scott and Carver Counties have seen an increase of needs for those experiencing homelessness, while the safety nets and housing systems have lagged behind in meeting these needs.

Presently, in the United States, over 250 plans to end homelessness have been developed. These plans help communities assess current and emerging trends, evaluate and improve their systems, and identify and retain increased funding support for homeless prevention and housing efforts. Copies of all completed Heading Home Plans in Minnesota can be accessed at www.headinghome.org.

For additional details or information about the meeting, contact Allison Streich at 952-448-7715 x2803 or go to: www.stjohnschaska.org.

APPLICATIONS FOR CHRISTMAS IN MAY, WHICH WILL BE HELD ON MAY 19TH, ARE STILL NEEDED!

If you have home maintenance projects that need addressing, do not hesitate to contact 952-361-5350.

No project is too small or too big for consideration. Every year hundreds of people volunteer to assist with renovation projects in the City. This year however, only one household has applied for assistance! There must be more people who need help! Otherwise, that's a lot of volunteers for one house!

Past projects have included roofing, interior and exterior painting, yard or garage clean up, landscaping, plumbing, accessibility issues, and many other maintenance services.

Maybe you just need the carpets cleaned but you can't handle moving the furniture and lugging the equipment around. Maybe you need your windows washed but they are too heavy to maneuver and too high to reach by yourself. Do your bathroom and kitchen faucets drip and leak? Do you need your kitchen painted but you can't move the appliances? Does your basement or garage need cleaning but you can't do the job by yourself?

Are your trees and shrubbery so overgrown you can't see out the windows? Is your deck falling apart?

All the services are completed free of charge to the homeowners by both skilled and unskilled volunteer laborers. You needn't worry about asking for help. We WANT to help! It's fun and we get a free lunch!

Call today! Applications are scheduled to end tomorrow. 952-361-5350.

NO CHASKA CITY COUNCIL MEETING ON MONDAY, MARCH 5TH.
NEXT MEETING IS MARCH 19TH AT 7:00 PM
